Letter From the Editors

It has been another wonderful year working with the yearbook staff. Everyone consistently put in their all towards making this year's yearbook. Of course, we couldn't have done it without Mr. Coulombe and Jostens. Without their help and guidance, nothing would've been accomplished. Thank you for making all of this happen!

As usual, it takes a great amount of time and effort to create the yearbook, but everyone handled it pretty well. Being in yearbook takes dedication, effort, and willingness, and it's easy to say each staff member had those qualities and held onto them throughout the whole year. To be part of the yearbook staff is to be part of a second family. Amidst of all the work, there are fun times, jokes and laughter. This year especially, there were a bunch of new faces, however it wasn't long until a stranger became a friend. Through the hard work put in by everyone it seemed as if we had all been part of the yearbook staff since freshman year. We truly couldn't have asked for a better, well-connected yearbook staff. Thank you to each and every member.

Finally, we would like to give a big thanks to Chestnut Hill Studios for taking wonderful pictures for our yearbook, the students and faculty for letting us come into their classrooms and capture the perfect moments, and all of the businesses for supporting us. As for the future yearbook staff, we hope you make the best of it. Don't be scared to put your ideas out there, and good luck! And lastly, to the graduating class of 2016, never lose track of yourself and work hard to get where you want to go. It's been great, seniors!

Yearbook Dedication

On behalf of the Class of 2016 we would like to dedicate this year's yearbook to Mr. Thomas Marcello.

Mr. Marcello first got involved with the drama department during his time as a student at East Providence High School. He helped the music department with their musicals freshman year, and he played a major role in The Man Who Came to Dinner during his senior year. After graduating high school, Mr. Marcello taught in Warren for four years and became an actor, director, and stage manager at Trinity Rep. In 1976, Mr. Marcello made the decision to work at Joseph Case High School after he realized that being involved with professional theatre was keeping him from spending time with his young children.

Mr. Marcello's teaching years at Case have been full of memorable moments. Mr. Marcello has seen many students in his class, including some of our teachers and even our own principal, Mr. McCann. He has fond memories of working with wonderful students and participating in drama comps. Some of his best memories include having Romeo and Juliet being aired on Bravo TV in January of 1990 and having the drama department being invited to participate in the Shakespeare parade in England in 1989. And, of course, Mr. Marcello remembers Freshman Mr. McCann answering him back at rehearsal in 1977. He truly loves all of his students.

Sadly, after 40 long years of working at Case, Mr. Marcello is retiring from teaching. However, Mr. Marcello will always be remembered and appreciated by the students and faculty at Case. For the current drama department and for future drama students, Mr. Marcello would like to leave them with his common saying: "Do what is necessary, then what is possible, and, suddenly, you're doing the impossible."

Letters from the Administration

To the Class of 2016,

I congratulate each and every one of you on your graduation from Joseph Case High School. It is exciting and rewarding to watch you walk across the stage to receive your diploma and bring closure to such an important and enjoyable chapter in your lives. The next chapter will be equally as challenging and hopefully as enjoyable as your years in the Swansea Public Schools.

You should be proud of what you have accomplished and excited to pursue the challenges that lie ahead. I urge you to move forward in pursuit of your goals and dreams with the confidence that the knowledge, experience and character that you have gained at Joseph Case High School will allow you to be successful in the next chapter of your life and beyond.

I challenge you to continue to make the difficult choices in your life that will continue to make your parents, your community and yourself proud. Congratulations on this outstanding achievement. I wish you the best of luck in the pursuit of your future endeavors.

Robert G. Monteiro
Superintendent of Swansea Public Schools

To the Class of 2016,

Congratulations to the class of 2016! As you complete your journey through the Swansea Public School system, know that you have achieved a huge milestone in your life and that your high school diploma is a stepping stone to bigger and better things. Many of you have your sights set on specific goals, and many of you still need to "figure it out;" either way just remember that whatever path you choose as you move out into the world, each of you are leaving high school equipped, both socially and academically, to make choices that will help you to be successful members of a larger community.

As you reflect on your days at Joseph Case High School, do so with pride and a sense of achievement. Good luck in all that you do!

Best Wishes,
John J. Robidoux
Assistant Superintendent of Swansea Public Schools

Dear graduates of the Class of 2016:

Your high school commencement is indeed a milestone. When we gathered for the first time on the last Tuesday of August 2012, I told you that the next four years would fly by. And today, as you are reading this for the first time, I was right!

Think how much you have changed for the better in the four years – and the powers you have honed. And it wasn't just luck or good fortune. It was because you worked hard. Some harder than others – but all Case June graduates got the job done in time to be a part of this traditional graduation celebration.

After a period of reflection, I have one wish for this class: the gift of a quiet place. Find some solace for YOU each day in a quiet place. My quiet place is before 7 a.m. in my office where I read for ten minutes before each school day. Some of my reading is professional, some classic, some just pop culture titles – but it's what I want to read for a small period of time.

As of this writing, I am in the midst of a slow, methodical reading of Walt Whitman's classic collection of poems, Leaves of Grass. You can't imagine how the 19th century thoughts of this great American poet mirror events in my own personal and professional life!

These words of Whitman wisdom resonated with me this week:
*Whatever interests the rest interests me....
The blossoms we wear in our hats are growth of two thousand years...
The day getting ready for me when I shall do as much good as the best, and be as prodigious...
Elevés, I salute you*

You are now part of Joseph Case High School's rich history. Take time for yourself, and use all of your powers for good.

Brian McCann
Principal

To The Class of 2016,

As your high school experience comes to a conclusion, a new and exciting chapter in your lives will now begin. Although you have planned for this milestone for a long time, you may be anxious about your future. Whether you plan on entering higher education, the military, or the workforce, I am confident that Joseph Case High School has provided you with the skills and self-reliance needed to tackle this complex decision. The academic rigor, athletic accomplishments, and social challenges provided by Joseph Case High School have influenced your goals and shaped your character. Leave with a sense of confidence and pride.

As you reflect on the past four years, thank those who have helped you along the way. Your families, friends, teachers, and coaches have celebrated your achievements and supported you when faced with adversity. It is now your responsibility to utilize these experiences for your personal success. Take advantage of this time in your lives to reach your unlimited potential, and apply all you have learned as products of the Swansea Public Schools.

I wish you all the best of luck in your future endeavors.
Christopher J. Costa
Assistant Principal

Jacob Biello

It is rare to find a young man so full of passion & heart, never afraid to show it, leading others toward a worthy cause. We are so proud of you for working to make your dreams a reality. It has been a true joy watching you grow to be a leader, and as always a loving, intelligent young man! Remember to always give 100%, no matter what you do, & you'll know that you did everything you could. Your life, your dreams, & your future are limitless! We believe in you & we love you!

Dad & Sunny

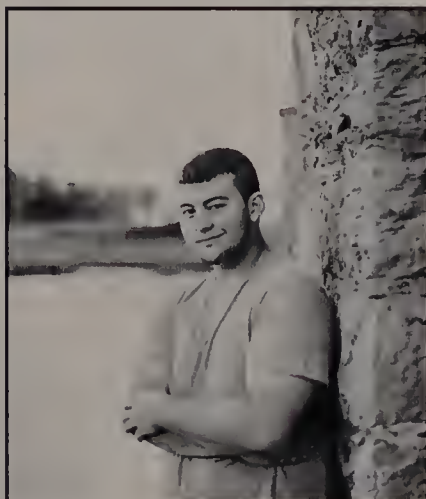

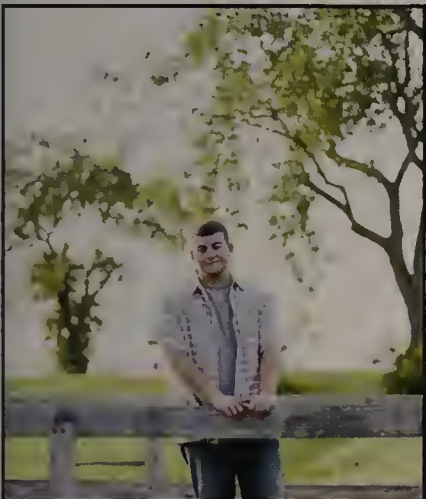

"Neither a lofty degree of intelligence nor imagination nor both together go to the making of genius. Love, love, love, that is the soul of genius." (Mozart) I will never forget the beautiful young man who broke rank to hug his mom and the proud example he gave to those who look to him as a leader. Always remember how full of love your heart is and how far it takes you when you show it. It will take you on journeys you never expected. In love and excitement for all that is ahead of you! - Mom xoxo

We always fight like normal siblings, but I wanted to say that I am so proud to call you my brother. And "remind me that we will always have each other, even when everyone else is gone." - Love, Mya.

KEVIN KOCHANЕК

"If people take anything from my music, it should be motivation to know that anything is possible as long as you keep working at it and don't back down."-Eminem

EVAN, you are kind, smart, funny and you can do anything you set your mind to.

Love, Mom & Dad

"There is a voice inside of you
That whispers all day long
I feel that this is right for me
I know that this is wrong.
No teacher, preacher, parent, friend
Or wise man can decide
What's right for you-just listen to
The voice that speaks inside
- Shel Silverstein

Jordan,
You've always had a great "voice."
Don't ever forget who you are or looking forward...

We're so proud of who you are!!
Love Mom, Dad, & Ryan
